MISS MOORE'S MAY WEDDING; GORDON-McGUIRE MARRIAGE

Dr. Bryan to Lecture at Woman's Club--Ante-Nuptial Entertainments--Society Prospectively Divided Between Travel In Foreign Lands and Dispensing Charming Hospitality In Country Homes.

These final May days witness busy scenes at Woman's College, Westminster School and Miss Virginia Ellett's School for Girls, where students are preparing for the end of the year and giving evidence of their proficiency by the earnestness with which they are entering upon the period of examination, preparatory, in the case of the graduating class, to their being awarded degrees and continuing their education along social, professional or practical lines, in the greater school-rooms of the world that opens to them as they emerge from the portals of their alma mater.

The "sweet girl graduate" has always a claim on the interest of society, which comes forward sympathetically to share in her hour of triumph and lay its roses at her feet. Clad in the white robes of dainty maidenhood, she stands on the threshold of life, looking eagerly forward into the larger land of liberty that she is to enter, with a shy bewilderment and delight that win her the admiration of all around and about her.

Her laurels are bestowed upon her with the heartiest and most enthusiastic applause. She is accorded graciously all her rights and privileges from class day to the evening when she stands upon the stage, diploma in hand, knee deep in American Beauties and other fragrant blossoms, some of which, pressed between the leaves of her "Memorabilia," she will look at in years to come and thereby recall one of the gladdest and proudest moments of her existence.

May days are delightful in the spacious parlors and cozy reading-rooms of the Woman's Club, where, on last Monday afternoon, it was conceded that Mr. H. M. Smith had delivered one of the most delightful addresses of the year on "Andrew Jackson." Dr. Robert C. Bryan has consented to appear before the club to-morrow afternoon, and his lecture on "The History of Medicine" is being looked forward to with much anticipative interest. The Milton C. Work Whist Club had its annual meeting at the club on Tuesday last, and the closing whist tournament of the season was played there on Friday evening, and proved a most animated contest.

BIRD-MOORE NUPTIALS.

The social event of last week at Union Theological Seminary was the marriage of Miss Lisette Fries Moore, the daughter of the Seminary president, Mr. W. W. Moore, to the Rev. Andrew Reid Bird, of Laurel, Md., a graduate in the class of 1905, of the Seminary, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edgeworth Bird, of Baltimore. The marriage took place in Watts Chapel, with a large number of relatives and friends in attendance.

The whole of Richmond is looking forward this week to the marriage of Miss Margaret Cameron McGuire and Mr. George Arthur Gordon, of Savannah, which will be celebrated in St. Paul's Episcopal Church Thursday evening, May 31st, at 9 o'clock. An unusual assemblage of out-of-town guests will be present to swell the numbers of a company at the church that will be made up of fashionable Richmond society. Several ante-nuptial entertainments will precede the wedding.

Richmond and Virginia were represented last week at Baltimore Horse Show, where interest was divided between the performances in the ring and beautifully gowned women in the boxes. Among them Miss Grace Day, of Virginia, sister of Mrs. Thomas S. Martin, and guest for the week of Mrs. Douglas Gordon, of Baltimore, attracted much attention. During one day's attendance she appeared in a gown of pale gray eolienne and a pale gray Neapolitan hat, with violet plumes. Mrs. Allen Potts, of Castle Hill and Richmond, was a ribbon winner in the first and second class where ladies' saddle horses were exhibited; Mr. David Dunlop's hunters came in for third class honors. The show was a great success from a sporting and social point of view.

MANY RICHMONDERS GOING ABROAD.

A society woman of Richmond declared a few days ago that she felt as if stranded, because all of her friends and acquaintances were going or had gone to Europe. Certain it is that the taste of Richmond people seem turned this year toward foreign lands, for every day some additional name is added to the lists of actual and prospective tourists.

Miss Bell Perkins, Mrs. Henry C. Stuart and Miss Gilligan sailed Saturday for England by the "Campania." Miss Louise McAdams will leave Richmond to-morrow night for New York. She will join Miss Cooper Hartman there and sail with her Tuesday on the Cunarder "Pannonia" to remain on the continent of Europe and in England until September.

The revival of a liking for country living is rendering certain sections of the beautiful upper and Piedmont regions in Virginia akin in social prestige and pleasantness to the ante-bellum days of the "Old Dominion." In upper Virginia, Morven Park, the home of Mr. Westmoreland Davis, is among others, of Oak Hill, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairfax; the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Willard, and that of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Mayo.

Mrs. Basil Gordon will soon leave Washington for Wakefield Manor, her country home in Rappahannock county, Va., where her children and governess are already established. Mrs. Gordon has arranged a series of house parties at Wakefield Manor for the early summer weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cameron and the Misses Cameron will go to "Cameron Lodge," near Gordonsville, Va., the first of June, to remain there until the autumn. Their summer home is in one of the most picturesque and lovely spots to be found in the State, and is always a center of charming and cultured social pleasure and life.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON OF ALUMNAE.

Association of Woman's College.

An annual luncheon of the Alumnae Association of the Woman's College is to be held this year at Guthrie's, on June 4th, and promises to be a most enjoyable event in the history of the Woman's College commencement this year. Those wishing to attend the luncheon should send their names and one dollar, before May 31st, to Mrs. C. E. Garrett at the college. The luncheon will be served promptly at 2 o'clock and, as there will be no place for assembling, it is hoped that all arrivals will be timed to meet the requirements of the hour.

The forty-five young ladies composing the graduating class--Miss Evelyn Martin, Miss May Sheppard, Miss Ethel Peckitt, Miss Louise Thomason, Miss Myra Ackles, Miss Bessie Wilson, Miss Edna Blanton, Miss Carrie Fitzpatrick, Miss Jennie Chory, Miss Maude Puckett, Miss Ulline Valden, Miss Mary Burnley Billingsley, Miss Mary Barnes, Miss Annie Lee Greer, Miss Mary Perkins, Miss Virgie Roberts, Miss Lucy Scott, Miss Hilda Tatum, Miss Susie Bell, Miss Jessie Brown, Miss Louzelle Chaplin, Miss Mabel Deans, Miss Louise Dickinson, Miss Irene Galeski, Miss Nannie Mitchell, Miss Annie Newcomb, Miss Mamie Oliver Pollard, Miss Janie Richardson, Miss Edna May Smith, Miss Bessie Tallaferr, Miss Nannie Verran, Miss Myrtle Busch, Miss Minnie Coghill, Miss Myrtle Dodson, Mary Smith, Miss Della Dudley, Miss Eula Hutton, Miss Ruth Lewis, Miss Mary Pitts, and Miss Lily Trevett--will be the guests of honor. Miss Ulline Valden, of the class, will respond to the toast of welcome from the association.

Mrs. Charles Winston and Miss Becker form the committee of arrangements.

Miss Belle Williamson will prove a most genial toastmistress. The toasts she proposes will be responded to by Mrs. Katherine Gudger Langley and Mrs. Anne Harwood Abrahams, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Florence Thalhimer, of this city.

The committee on decoration includes Mrs. B. B. Van Buren, chairman; Mrs. Mary Turpin, Miss Rosa Smith, Mrs. Howard Sutton and Miss Katherine Foster.

In the reception committee will be Mrs. Sallie Harris, chairman; Miss Lily M. Becker, Miss Madeline Montgomery and Miss Ruth Harrison.

At Woman's Club.

On Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Dr. Robert C. Bryan will lecture before the Woman's Club on "The History of Medicine," a most interesting as well as instructive topic.

Annual Meeting.

The annual business meeting of the Milton C. Work Whist Club will be held in the audience-room of the Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon. The club received with much regret the resignation of Mrs. L. H. White as president, she having been its founder and, perhaps, more than any other one person, a prime factor in the advancement of whist in Richmond. Mrs. Fairfax Montague was chosen as Mrs. White's successor, the other officers elected being Mrs. Basil Spalding, vice-president; Mrs. William Gray, secretary, and Miss Claire Gull-laine, treasurer. The board of governors for the coming year will be Mrs. Bland B. Smith, Mrs. C. W. P. Brock, Mrs. A. P. Wilmer, Mrs. E. M. Harvie, Mrs. Harrie Webster, Miss M. P. Harris, Mrs. James Keith, and Mrs. C. E. Doyle.

After the meeting dainty refreshments were served. The last meeting of the season will be held on Tuesday afternoon, after which the club will disband for the summer.

Whist Tournament.

Nine tables took part in the whist tournament played at the Woman's Club on Friday evening, the highest score north and south being made by Mrs. Williams, playing with Mrs. South. Mrs. L. M. Woodward was north and south.

In recognition of the pleasure given the gentlemen guests during the winter, they presented a set of duplicate whist boards to the club. A poetical farewell was read by Mr. John Tyler and, after the serving of delicious refreshments, the players disbanded for the summer.

In Honor of Miss Fry.

Miss Emma Morehead Fry, of Greensboro, N. C., who spent the winter and early spring in Richmond with her aunt, Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, has recently returned home and was the guest of honor last week at a beautiful reception given by her parents, Captain and Mrs. J. W. Fry, in their home, N. 340 Elm Street, Greensboro.

The Raleigh News and Observer makes the following mention of the entertainment in which Richmond friends of Miss Fry will be interested. It says: "The occasion was made one of great pleasure to something like two hundred guests. The decorations were elaborate and arranged with the utmost taste and artistic effect. A color scheme of pink, green and white prevailed. A profusion of roses formed a noticeable part of the decorations. The delightful music of Elton's orchestra added to the enjoyment of the guests. The debutante, who was becomingly gowned in white, was with the members of the party who received in the south parlor and she was the object of much friendly interest on the part of the large number of friends of her parents who called. Miss Fry is a bright and lively young woman of an attractive appearance and demeanor and makes an interesting addition to the social circle in which she moves. She spent the winter in Richmond where she made many friends. Receiving in the south parlor with her were her mother, Miss Stuart Jones, of Charlotte; Miss Mary Burwell, of Chase City, Va.; Miss Frances Lyon, Mrs. N. W. Caldwell, of Winston; Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, of Richmond. In the library punch was served and whistler the guests were conducted by Mrs. S. G. Fry, Miss Sue May Kirkland, Mrs. R. F. Dalton and Mrs. Andrew Buford, of Salisbury, presided. Receiving in the north parlor were Mrs. A. M. Seales and Mrs. C. Sturdivant, while, presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. J. G. Foushee, Jr., Miss Lizzie Lindsay, Mrs. E. P. Wharton, Mrs. D. A. Lunde and Miss Mattie Caldwell.

Class Recital.

The last monthly meeting of Miss Coper's vocal class was held yesterday, May 26th, in the studio, No. 26 East Franklin Street, at 4 P. M.

The program was enriched by contributions from two of Miss Coper's former pupils, Miss Marion Slaughter, who is now studying with Professor F. C. Hahn, and Miss Ollie Belle Howard, the accomplished elocutionist. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

The closing class exercises will take place in the studio on the afternoons of June 11th and 12th.

Miss Minor's Piano Class.

A recital by Miss Zelle Minor's piano class will be given at Woman's Club, No. 21 East Franklin Street, Tuesday, May 29th, at 8:30 o'clock. The class will be assisted by Miss Ellen Gordon Wortham, soprano; Miss Helen Portuau, contralto; Mr. Arthur Serlenger, baritone, and Mr. L. E. Weltzel, accompanist.

Special pupils of the class of 1905-1906 are Mr. Walter C. Mercer, Miss Lee Ingles and Mrs. W. E. Thurston. Graduates of the regular class are Miss Rebecca D. Gordon and Mrs. Lily Hill Smith. Johnson--Thompson. The wedding of Miss Gertrude Conger Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Ramsay Thompson, to Mr. Thomas Chalmers Johnson, son of Mrs. Bettie M. Johnson, of Concord, N. C., was celebrated at the home of the bride, on McBe Terrace, Greenville, S. C., Wednesday afternoon, May 23d, at 5 o'clock.

A remarkable feature of the occasion was the presence of the groom's venerable grandfather, the Rev. August Johnson, who performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Dr. S. R. Preston. The Rev. Mr. Johnson is in his ninety-eighth year, and has been in the ministry seventy-one years. With him also traveled from Texas to attend the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church. His manner of performing the ceremony was singularly touching and impressive. Every word that he spoke was distinct and clear, and he remarkably well preserved are all his faculties. That such an old gentleman could attend the General Assembly, a thousand miles from his home, and at the same time officiate at his grandson's wedding, and meet his children and grandchildren, some of whom he had not seen for years, is a fact worthy to be recorded.

To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by the bride's sister, the young couple entered the room and took their places beneath an arch of white and green, from which hung a wedding bell of white roses. Around the room palms and potted plants were banded, and roses and delicate sprays of green were everywhere in profusion. The bride's gown was white, brocaded tulle and Venice lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with white tulle. Her ornaments were an exquisite gold bracelet, the gift of the groom, and an antique brooch, her brother's gift. Her hair was worn in dark blue Rajah silk, with hat and gloves to match.

The bridal gifts were very handsome. The same evening Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left for Concord, N. C., to visit the groom's mother, Mrs. Bettie M. Johnson. From that point they will come to Richmond, Va., to spend some time with Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Kate B. Werns, on West Main Street.

The young couple will make their home in Greenville, S. C., where Mr. Johnson holds a responsible position as chief clerk for the Southern Railroad. Mr. Johnson has been in Greenville almost two years, and during that time, has made many friends.

Invitations Issued. Invitations have been received in Richmond from Mr. and Mrs. David Charles Laws for the marriage of their daughter, Jenna May, to Mr. Clark Smith, the ceremony to be performed on the evening of Tuesday, June 5th, at half-past eight o'clock.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception from 9 to 12 to be given in the home of the bride's parents, No. 705 Shelby Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

Surprise Party. A delightful surprise party was given a few evenings ago Miss Ella Felvey at her home on Twenty-third Street, by a few of her friends. Among the features of the evening were the instrumental solos by Miss Madeline Boze and Mary Gormelman, and the comic songs and recitations by Miss May Felvey. The lawn was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns and games of all kinds were played. At eleven o'clock delicious refreshments were served in the dining-room.

Among those present were: Misses Mamie Boze, Kate Williams, Kate Pomkins, Ella Koch, Mary Gormelman, Miss Owen, Miss Arvina Gormelman, Madeline Boze, Aline Hord, Florence Gormelman, Lena Buchanan, Mamie Kowski, Ella Felvey, Josie Boze, May Felvey, Essie Gormelman and Miss May Schell, of St. Louis, Mo.; Messrs. William Gormelman, John Nuckols, Charles Felvey, Walter White, Linwood Fiddler, John Kelley, Emmett Avery, Hunter Hechler, Eugene Robinson, Elmore Nuckols, George Kowski, Raymond England, Koch, John Felvey, Allen Alston, and Thomas Dominick.

Class Recital. Miss Hechler's class in elocution will give a recital at Fairmount Town Hall Friday evening, June first, at 8 o'clock. Miss Hechler will be assisted by Miss Rosamond Brauer, pianist. The following is the programme:

Part I--Piano Selection, Miss Rosamond Brauer; "Swan Song," Miss May Felvey; Humorous Reading, "The New Minister," Miss Ruth Brookins; Solo, Mr. Canepa; Reading, "Pa's Letter," Miss Lucille Butler; Reading, "A Magic Wand," Miss Alice Newman; Vocal Selection, "The Y. M. C. A. Quartette," Humorous Reading, Miss Bertha Watkins; Reading, "An Italian," Cornelia Crane; Humorous Reading, May Felvey; Fantomine, "Lead, Kindly Light," by the class.

Part II--Solo, Mr. Canepa; Humorous Reading, Miss Lee Liggan; Fantomine, "Bring Flowers," by the class; Selection by the Y. M. C. A. Quartette; Piano Selection, Miss Rosamond Brauer; Tennis Drill, by the class.

In Honor of Miss Knox. Friends of Miss Knox in Richmond will be interested to notice the following account of an entertainment given in her honor by Fredericksburg friends. The Fredericksburg Evening Journal says: "At their beautiful home on lower Main Street Mrs. Martin and Miss Renolds delightfully entertained a number of their friends from 4 to 6:30 P. M. Thursday at bridge whist in honor of their guest, Miss Knox, of Richmond. At the conclusion of the games refreshments were served. Besides the hostesses those present were: Mrs. George W. S. J. T. Goodrick, Miss Lucy Herndon, Mrs. T. E. Morris, Mrs. Tab Newman, Miss Edna Fitzhugh, Mrs. H. H. Johnston, Mrs. W. J. Chawning, Miss Mary E. Thompson, Mrs. W. D. Carter, Miss L.
